

Jewish Community Project- Hebrew School Project

Position Opening:
Hebrew School Project Teachers
(Part-time position for Monday and Tuesday afternoons)

The Jewish Community Project (JCP) is located in the heart of Tribeca, and brings people together to celebrate Jewish life. We have established a diverse, creative, inclusive, and open Jewish community and communal space in Lower Manhattan that meets the needs of the growing downtown population.

Hebrew School Project (HSP) serves families with children in Pre K through 8th grade, and, together with our Center for Jewish Life, celebrates Shabbat and other holidays, participates in community service, and engages in JCP's Bar/Bat Mitzvah Experience. In addition to after-school classes on Mondays or Tuesdays, a vital part of the curriculum includes participation in additional JCP programming, such as Shabbat experiences and holiday events.

JCP is looking to hire talented and engaging teachers for its Hebrew School Project (HSP) for the 2017-2018 school year.

Applicants must:

- Be engaging, enthusiastic, and passionate about Jewish education
- Have experience working in diverse educational settings
- Have an understanding of Jewish history, holidays and ritual and a basic Hebrew education
- Be interested in learning and growing as a teacher and as a Jewish professional
- Be a team player, open to creative and collaborative work
- Feel comfortable in a flexible professional environment
- Be committed to sharing ideas
- Be excited about participating in JCP community and school-wide events
- Have excellent written and verbal communication skills and
- Have a progressive approach to Judaism and denominationalism

Application Instructions: To apply, please send a cover letter and resume to Erin Beser, Director of HSP at ebeser@jcpdowntown.org.

To find out more about JCP and the Hebrew School Project, visit jcpdowntown.org.