INTRODUCTION

The Center for Jewish Life in Lower Manhattan

The Jewish Community Project (JCP Downtown) is a vibrant and innovative hub for Jewish life. Founded in 2002 in the aftermath of 9/11, JCP has served the community for more than 20 years, offering programs for children, families, and adults seeking connection and lifelong friendships. At JCP, we meet people where they are and grow with them through every stage of their Jewish journey. We welcome all who seek an inclusive, pluralistic Jewish experience rooted in community. Through countless opportunities to connect, we celebrate our rich tradition, foster meaningful relationships, and build a strong Jewish community.

RABBIS

The Jewish Community Project began as a bold, innovative idea to engage Jews living downtown. Over the past two decades, we have grown into a vibrant center for Jewish learning, spiritual connection, and lifelong friendships. More than 20 years later, we are the Center for Jewish Life in Lower Manhattan. Throughout it all, we have joined together to celebrate our simchas, our happy occasions, and to help each other through challenges and hardship, both personal and communal.

This community is so strong and robust thanks to your commitment. Your steadfast support allows us to offer our enriching learning opportunities, our joyful Shabbat and holiday celebrations, our meaningful life cycle events, and so much more. And it allows us to serve as a warm home for families throughout the city, allowing people of all ages to add richness and meaning to their lives through uplifting Jewish experiences and to build lifelong friendships.

It is an honor to work in partnership with such a talented staff and passionate community members to serve JCP and to help this community grow and thrive. And it is a joy to help transmit our beautiful traditions and values to the next generation, and to help our children build proud Jewish identities. We are all so fortunate to have JCP in our neighborhood. It is the place that brings us together and plays such an important role in our lives.

I look forward to seeing you soon for more opportunities to grow, to learn, to build community, and to celebrate together. Thank you for allowing JCP to be part of your Jewish journey, and thank you for being part of our community.

With gratitude and appreciation,

Rabbi Deena
Rabbi and Director of Jewish Life

As I wrap up my first year as Executive Director of JCP Downtown, there is a lot of learning and growth to reflect on. Coming from twenty years of work in Youth Development organizations, being at the helm of a community hub like this one is quite different in some ways, and very much the same in others. At its core, JCP is living out its mission and values of being a center for pluralistic, inclusive Judaism, and building a new model for the ways in which it is the center of people's Jewish lives. But what I have learned that is just as compelling and exciting to me, is that JCP excels at building the scaffolding on which lifelong friendships are based.

The secret sauce of JCP isn't a best-in-class Early Childhood Center or Hebrew School (although we have those!), it's that this is a place where people meet their best friends and build their lifelong community. There is magic in that, which is indescribably profound and deeply meaningful to me, and I think to most of you.

Our classrooms, at every level, are bustling and still expanding. Our beautiful and moving High Holy Day services had a capacity crowd. Our annual Benefit was a tremendous success, honoring Aaron Stone and Rachel and Eric Ziff. Our programming and public events are consistently sold-out. JCP is the center of an increasingly vibrant Jewish presence in Lower Manhattan.

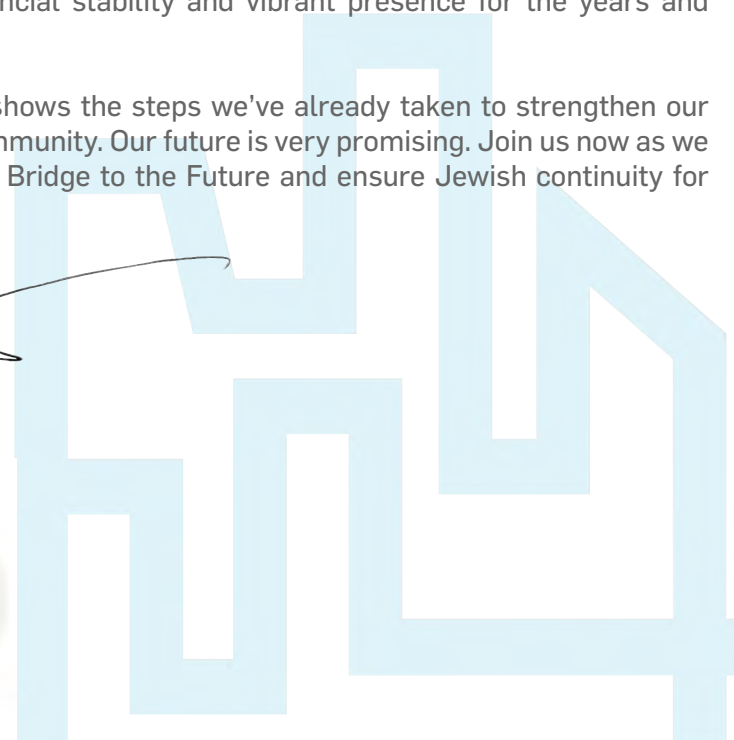

Our commitment to Israel is steadfast, as we are constantly adding new Israel engagement, education, and cultural programs throughout the year. We have partnered with ARZA Canada to reimagine our Hebrew School curriculum so that it includes a focus on Israel and Israeli history. In 2024, we took our first trip to Israel as an organization, a transformative and highly emotional experience for all who attended. We are excited that the year ahead contains even more Israel programming. We, the Jewish people, need a strong Israel, and Israel needs a strong American Jewish community.

JCP provides what our community seeks: connectivity and commitment to inclusive Judaism and culture. We have begun a process to provide an expanded vision for JCP's future, and to develop the resources necessary to ensure both our financial stability and vibrant presence for the years and decades ahead.

This Annual Report shows the steps we've already taken to strengthen our own local Jewish community. Our future is very promising. Join us now as we continue to build our Bridge to the Future and ensure Jewish continuity for generations to come.

Sincerely,

Peter A. Retzlaff
Executive Director

As we close out the calendar year and head into a new year, we wanted to take an opportunity to reflect on the year that was 2024 for JCP. In our first year as co-Presidents of this remarkable community, we have been overwhelmed by the support and commitment of the membership to JCP's mission. The dedication of our community members is our greatest strength and we cannot thank you enough for another year in which you exhibited extraordinary generosity with both your time and resources.

It's impossible to reflect on 2024 without first acknowledging the profound challenges and sadness that our people faced throughout the year. But in the face of such adversity and suffering, JCP came together to redouble our unwavering commitment to Israel and to advocacy for Jewish causes. In this vein, we amplified our dedication to Israel education, advocacy, and engagement for all segments of our community, from our youngest Hebrew School students to our adult learners. This is something that will continue into 2025 and beyond as we ensure that our community remains at the vanguard of support of Israel and Jews everywhere.

While challenges were undoubtedly an ever-lurking factor in 2024, we cannot overlook the many moments of joy and incredible achievements that our community realized during the year. We celebrated the High Holidays with hundreds of members, family and guests. We witnessed the largest Annual Benefit in JCP history with over 450 attendees. Our membership has grown exponentially and our Hebrew School now has over 240 students. Social programming, cultural events, and holiday celebrations are experiencing unprecedented levels of uptake and enthusiasm from the membership.

Our ability to achieve these milestones has been a direct result of the dedication and hard work of this community. From the tireless efforts of our professional staff to the enthusiasm of our volunteers and the generosity of our donors, we are incredibly fortunate to be surrounded by such a passionate and driven community. Our future is strong, and we are excited for all that is in store for the year ahead.

We are deeply grateful for the trust you have placed in us, and we are committed to working together to make a meaningful difference. We are more inspired than ever by the incredible impact of our community, and we look forward to the exciting future that lies ahead.

With Enthusiasm For 2025 and Beyond,

Shara Levy and Rachel Ziff
Board Co-Presidents

I love JCP because it embodies a spirit of growth and connection within our community. It's been a singular pleasure to watch seeds planted 25 years ago transform into a thriving community that bear the fruits of our labor. Witnessing the impact of our collective efforts, I am inspired by the tight-knit friendships and deep bonds formed through our shared Jewish identity and traditions. Supporting JCP means investing in a vibrant future where our values and heritage flourish, creating a lasting legacy for generations to come.

The warmth of JCP is really what sets it apart, as it fosters an authentic sense of belonging and connection. Even as our kids have moved beyond the ECC, the JCP community remains central in our lives, and we all cherish the relationships we've built here. From participating in community service with Rabbi Deena, to watching our son light up the stage in the Purim Shpiel, to proudly introducing our parents to our Jewish home, JCP continues to enrich our lives in countless ways.

With Rabbi Deena, we felt embraced from day 1. She has been very patient, understanding and always willing to go off topic to discuss ongoing questioning, especially during such a tough time for the Jewish community. She has been a reference point for us to discuss topics that are hard to converse on nowadays in the public sphere, and our discussions have been cathartic."
